Azam Ghani

Director, World Litigation Forum
LL.M., The University of California, Berkeley

Dear WLF 2023 Singapore Attendees

On behalf of the World Litigation Forum (WLF), I would like to welcome you to Singapore for the first-ever WLF event in Southeast Asia. I am delighted that you have chosen to join us for this important gathering of the global litigation community.

The WLF is dedicated to promoting the highest standards of professionalism and ethics in the practice of litigation. We believe that litigation is an essential part of the rule of law, and we are committed to ensuring that it is conducted fairly and justly.

The WLF's mission is to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and information among litigators from around the world. We believe that by sharing our experiences and perspectives, we can learn from each other and improve the quality of our work.

The WLF also strives to promote the development of new and innovative litigation techniques. We believe that the law is constantly evolving, and we must be prepared to adapt our practices accordingly.

The WLF is committed to providing its members with the resources they need to succeed. We offer a variety of educational programs, networking opportunities, and advocacy initiatives. We are also committed to providing our members with access to the latest legal research and information.

I am confident that the WLF 2023 Singapore event will be a valuable experience for all of our delegates. We have assembled a distinguished group of speakers and panelists, and we are confident that you will learn a great deal from them.

I would like to thank our sponsors for their generous support of this event. Their contributions make it possible for us to bring together the global litigation community and to promote the highest standards of professionalism and ethics in the practice of litigation.

I would also like to thank our local partners in Singapore for their hard work and dedication in organizing this event. Their efforts have made it possible for us to host a successful and memorable event.

I would like to thank you again for choosing to join us for the WLF 2023 Singapore event. I look forward to meeting you all in person and to working with you to promote the highest standards of professionalism and ethics in the practice of litigation.

Sincerely,

Azam Ghani

Director, World Litigation Forum

RISHI & PARTNERS

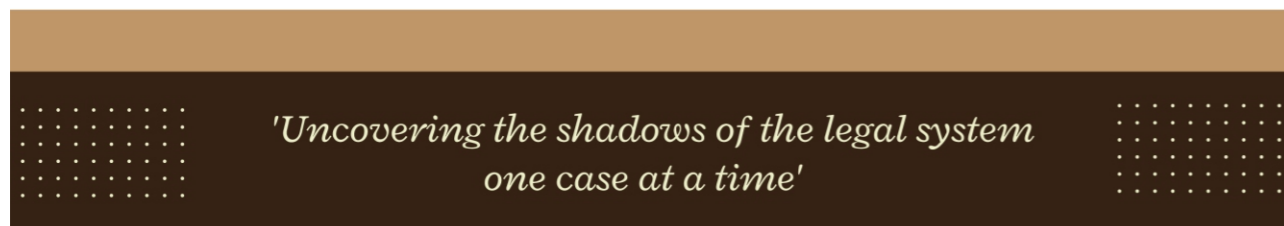

A boutique law firm situated at the heart of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia committed to providing personalized legal services to small and medium-sized corporations in the areas of corporate consultancy, anti-money laundering compliance, general regulatory related matters, and litigation.

We understand that each client's legal needs are unique, which is why we take an adaptive and practical approach in executing our services.

Whether you require assistance with drafting, reviewing, negotiation of contracts, advise on regulatory compliance related matters, strategizing, advising or execution in relation to litigation or dispute resolution, our team can provide practical cost-effective solutions in line with your business goals.

We pride ourselves in our ability to offer comprehensive legal advice, sensitive to the needs and commercial realities of our clients' businesses. We have a wealth of experience in advising clients at all levels of corporate consultancy.

As regards litigation, while we are experienced in nuanced, complex, and protracted courtroom battles, our focus leans toward providing our clients with practical solutions that mitigate legal risks and exposure. On that score, our team is adept at developing creative, non-adversarial strategies to resolve conflicts while obtaining desired outcomes. These desired outcomes achieved by our clients incidentally tend to subsequently prompt engagements from counterparts, adversaries, and/or opponents. Needless to say, our core tenet is to unflinchingly defend our clients' interests at all times.
